

Ufenau promotes Richard Lustig to Partner

Pfäeffikon (CH), August 2024

Dear Investors,
Partners and Friends of Ufenau Capital Partners,

Ufenau Capital Partners is delighted to announce the promotion of Richard Lustig to Partner.

Since joining Ufenau Capital Partners in 2018, he has been actively involved in over 20 transactions. Throughout his career, he has gained over 15 years of experience in both industry and private equity - including Healthcare and IT / Tech-Enabled Services - whilst having served or currently serving on the Board of Directors at European AV Group, GarLa Group and X1F.

Ralf Flore, Managing Partner of Ufenau, comments: “Since joining, Richard has contributed enormously to the ongoing success of many of our portfolio companies and the wider firm in general. He has, and continues to, consistently demonstrate an exceptional level of performance, with a track record of delivering results whilst showcasing his ability to drive different companies’ value creation, integration, and growth plans. We welcome Richard to the partnership, and look forward to his continued contribution to Ufenau.”

The entire Ufenau team wishes Richard all the best and is looking forward to working closely with him in his new role.
